BRYAN FLITS IN, FLITS OUT AGAIN

Commoner Dines with Local Democrats But Is Silent on Politics.

DOVE ADORNS TABLE

Former Secretary of State Lauds Democratic Party—Leaves City After Banquet.

W. J. B. flitted into Washington last night for a complimentary dinner at the Hotel Lafayette and flitted out again this morning at 4 o'clock. The banquet was tendered Mr. Bryan by Thomas Henry Pickford. Seated around the hollow-square table, with the image of a pure white dove perched in the center, were several notables, including Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Majority Leader Kitchin, of the House, Senator Vardaman, Senator Martine, of New Jersey, and Senator Walsh and Meyers, of Montana.

It was, in a sense, a meeting again of friends in public life. In fact, W. J. B. did not eat at his appointed place, but juggled his chair around the square, talking with the diners.

After the newspapermen had watched him and his chair go twice around the table, they advised, in jest, to catch him unaware in a corner, and started their questions. W. J. B. became real peeved when one asked him if he would accept the candidacy for President on the White Ribbon in Chicago, greatly desiring his presence at the head of their ticket.

"You may say for me that I have never yet accepted the candidacy for Chief Executive from newspaper men," said he. "This is the first time I ever heard of the movement and it probably will be the last."

In his after-dinner speech, he lauded the Democratic party for its achievements in legislation.

Among those present were: Senator Lane, of Oregon; Representatives Keating, Stephens, Callaway, Bailey, of Pennsylvania; Huddleston, Connelly, Lobeck, Ragdale, and Col. R. M. Harper, John F. Costello, Cotter, T. Bridge, W. Gordon Crawford, and Roy Pickford, all of the District; D. M. Albers, secretary of State of Montana; and State Senator Galway, of the same State.

MACFARLAND TOPS LIST OF JULY FOURTH DONORS

Former Commissioner Sends First Check to Fund for District Preparedness Demonstration.

Henry B. F. MacFarland, former Commissioner of the District, was the first man to subscribe to the fund being raised to hold a "Military Preparedness Day" in Washington on July 4. He sent in his check yesterday afternoon.

Contributions to this end, Mr. Columbus stated, may be sent to Commissioner Oliver P. Newman, chairman of the executive committee, arranging for the celebration, or to Treasurer Edmund S. Wolfe, of the District National Bank.

The Citizens' Independence Day Committee is planning a pretentious celebration for preparedness on July 4 at the Brightwood Reservoir. To do this, $5,000 is needed. A military tournament by the District National Guard will be staged representing all the civic associations in and the athletic field day will have teams its relay race.

Members of the executive committee, besides Chairman Newman, are Edmund S. Wolfe, Charles J. Columbus, Edward F. Calladay, M. A. Leese, D. S. Porter, Odell S. Smith, E. C. Graham, John L. Newbold, Joseph Berberich, and Washington Topham.

Although Smilingly Uncommunicative Ex-President Attracts More Notice Than Brass Band.

Theodore Roosevelt spent four hours in Washington yesterday, and attracted as much attention as a circus parade or a brass band. He was greeted at the Union Station by a fair-sized crowd upon his arrival, was followed about by other crowds wherever he put in an appearance, and was given an ovation as he took his departure.

He was beset by newspapermen and politicians, who fired questions at him intended to draw out comment on the present Republican situation. He parried all such questions in a skillful manner or answered emphatically that he would not discuss politics.

When the Colonel was urged to say something about his own presidential boom, the Hughes movement, or the aspirations of other candidates for the presidential nomination, he grinned and responded, "Not a thing; not a thing. I am not talking about anybody today."

TAGGART MAKES DEBUT.

Senator Thomas Taggart, of Indiana, made his maiden speech in the Senate yesterday and it was in opposition to the "pork barrel." The Progressives who have been fighting "pork" welcomed the new recruit and he held quite a levee after his brief address.

"I am in favor of a general way of improving the rivers and harbors of the nation," said Senator Taggart. "Particularly am I in favor of improving the rivers on which we have a substantial commerce, but I am unalterably opposed to the improvement of every little creek, bay, inlet, sound and river at the expense of the United States Treasury."

WANTS NO GERMANS.

Maxwell Norman Also Excludes Irish From Job.

Beverly, Mass., May 23.—Maxwell Norman, being a polo player and a lover of all outdoor sports, is a believer in preparedness for action, but he purposes to have peace on his summer estate at Hamilton if it can be obtained by precaution, and in advertising for a gardener he has stipulated that no German or Irishman need apply.

Mr. Norman is a brother of Capt. Guy Norman, of Washington, who recently announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Representative from the New York (R. T.) district, and is also a brother of Mrs. Frederick H. Prince, of the Wenham colony.

SAYS ENO BEAT CHILD OF THREE

Doctor Testifies at Trial Involving $5,000,000 for Columbia University.

TELLS OF ODD TRAITS

Physician Declares Millionaire Did Not Like Students, "Suffs" and Jews.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, May 23.—Dr. Robert Wylie, testifying before Surrogate Cohen and a jury at the contest of Amos F. Eno's will, by which over $5,000,000 was left to Columbia University, said he was convinced of the millionaire's irrationality at Saratoga last summer when he "cared" a 3-year-old child who was playing on the porch. The witness took the child away from Mr. Eno.

Dr. Wylie also told of the treatment Mr. Eno accorded an old friend, Antonio Delphino, a Venetian diplomat, who had gone to Saratoga on an invitation from Mr. Eno. The guest was admonished frequently by Mr. Eno not to eat so much and not to drink wine. The diplomat, he added, was also rudely ordered to move his chair in the smoking room from time to time at Eno's whim.

Three years ago Mr. Eno, discussing Columbia University, said he did not believe in college education, according to Dr. Wylie. He did not believe in Barnard College, in the education of women, or in President Butler, the witness added.

"Mr. Eno said four or five times graduates of colleges were usually loafers and bums," Dr. Wylie testified. "On another occasion, when the question of Columbia came up, Mr. Eno said the university 'had a lot of Jews,' the witness said. 'Mr. Eno spoke a good deal of Jews. He said he did business with them, as he said they were lars.'"

"Women suffragists don't know anything and have no brains," the physician quoted Mr. Eno as saying last summer.

COLONEL'S SUPPORTERS ALL BECOME OPTIMISTIC

Renewed Activity Noticeable About Various Headquarters in New York.

Seth Low Gives Boost.

(By the Sun News Service.)

New York, May 23.—Col. Roosevelt's friends, after learning that the Colonel was much pleased to know that the Republican party is bursting with sentiment for his nomination, gave every evidence today of their intention to make a hot finish. Statements endorsing the Colonel bobbed up around the town and at the headquarters of both the Roosevelt National League and the Roosevelt Republican League were signs of extraordinary activity.

Arthur L. Garford, Progressive candidate for governor of Ohio in 1912, and for United States Senator in 1914, came into the Waldorf with reassurance as to the extent of Roosevelt sentiment in the West. Mr. Garford has recently been in California and Arizona, and he says the folks there are strong for the Colonel. Former Mayor Seth Low added his boost to the Roosevelt propaganda today, praising very highly the Detroit speech of the Colonel.

At the headquarters of the national Roosevelt Republican committee, at the Biltmore, many letters and telegrams were received from Republicans and Democrats endorsing the movement to swing the Republican nomination to the Colonel.

ATTACKS PUZZLE POLICE.

Young Electrician Victim of Strange Sequence of "Accidents."

The mystery of two unusual "accidents" which have befallen James P. Robertson, a young electrician living at 1827 Jackson street northeast, and employed at the Franciscan Monastery, in Brookland, during the last year, is still unsolved by Central Office detectives. About four months ago Robertson was almost blinded by the flashing of a switch on a circuit on which he was working at the Monastery. Two weeks ago he found a "black haze" before his eyes, telling him to "look out for himself." Several days afterward a heavy iron bar, suspended above his office door at the church, fell upon his head as he entered the room.

Under the direction of Inspector Grant, Detectives Warren and O'Brien, of Central Office, have been assigned to the case. So far they have been unable to pick up any clue.

Ehrlich, president; Rose Gensberg, vice president; Goldie Livingston, secretary; Rose Kotz, treasurer, and Fred Decker, boom, sergeant-at-arms. Installation of officers will be held Sunday at the club's headquarters, 126 Sixth street northwest. The first annual excursion of the club will be given to Colonial Beach Sunday, June 4.

Mistake Measles for Smallpox.

A crowd of busy shoppers and laborers gazed in curiosity yesterday afternoon at Harold Hartman, who stood at the corner of Wisconsin avenue and M streets, apparently suffering from smallpox. Hartman, a nineteen-year-old colored boy, of Muddy Branch, Md., was covered with a rash. He was removed to Garfield Hospital, where it was found he was suffering from measles.

CITIZENS DEFEND HALF-AND-HALF

North Capitol Body Will Send Protest to Congress.

A. O. TINGLEY ALTERNATE

Association Hears of Marriage of President, Dr. E. D. Thompson, in New York.

Opposition to the District appropriation bill as reported out by the House District Committee, was expressed by the North Capitol and Eckington Citizens' Association last night. The specific complaint of the association was against the clause abolishing the half-and-half plan.

The action of the association last night reaffirms previous opposition. The resolution opposing the bill was introduced by Thomas A. Blair and seconded by H. E. Blair. The secretary, A. Coulter Wells, was instructed to communicate the organization's decision to the District Committee.

A. O. Tingley was elected alternate to the Federation of Citizens' Associations and C. O. Bowman was elected vice chairman of the streets and lights committee, taking over the active work of Chairman H. E. Blair.

Interest was added to the meeting by the announcement of the marriage of the president, Dr. Edgar D. Thompson, in New York recently. Dr. Thompson was taking a post-graduate course in medicine in New York when he ventured into wedlock. The members began to raise a subscription to give him a wedding present.

CITIZENS SEEK BERTH FOR POLICEMAN HERO

Ask Commissioners to Place Frank T. Ippolito at New Jersey Avenue and H Street.

There is a movement on foot to reward Policeman Frank T. Ippolito, who was badly injured while saving the life of a little child some weeks ago by having him made the crossing policeman at the corner of New Jersey avenue and H street northwest.

Several of the citizens' associations of the District have been requested by his friends to urge this action upon the Commissioners. The Central Citizens' Association has favored the plan and others are expected to take similar action.

It is pointed out by his friends that the corner of New Jersey avenue and H street is in need of an officer, inasmuch as several accidents recently have occurred there. They also claim that this station should be filled during the day, and point out that Policeman Ippolito will be able to handle the traffic there without difficulty.

Police Seek Autoists.

The police were instructed last night to keep a sharp lookout for an automobile which while occupied Monday afternoon by two unidentified white men collided with Postelle Jones, of 64 Twenty-fourth street northwest and then ran into a lamp post at Eleventh and M streets northwest.

COMPROMISE PROMISED ON "HERESY CHARGES"

Presbyterian Assembly Likely to Let New York Presbytery Off With Gentle Reprimand.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 23.—The committee considering heresy charges against the New York Presbytery, announced tonight that tomorrow morning a solution satisfactory to both sides will be suggested on the floor of the assembly. The spokesman was a bit enigmatic in his answer to questions, but left it to be inferred that the committee would recommend that neither New York or another presbytery must "never do it again."

It is said here that the committee compromise between the "liberals" and the "conservatives" was effected by diplomatic efforts on the part of Dr. McKibben, of Cincinnati; Dr. Masters, of Fort Wayne, and Dr. Mendenhall, moderator of the New York Presbytery. The committee was in session all day and the best part of tonight. Columbus, Ohio, and Saratoga, N. Y., entered into the field for next year's convention today. Dallas, Seattle, Washington, St. Louis and Atlantic City, N. J., are also actively canvassing for support. Dallas, which started its campaign last year at Rochester, N. Y., looms up as the favorite.

Mrs. Amos W. Barber Installed. An address by Mrs. Galus W. Brumbaugh, State regent, and a musical program featured the final meeting of the new season and the installation of the new chapter regent, Mrs. Amos W. Barber, of Columbia Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, last night at the Hotel Raleigh. Participating in the musical program were Miss Wilmoth Gary, piano solos, Miss Margaret Harbers, violin solos, and Mrs. Otis W. Swetts, vocal solos. Miss Florence Webster gave a reading.

Comfortable—that's why they're SENSIBLE

Many other good cigarettes besides Fatimas taste mighty good—WHILE you are smoking them.

But Fatimas deliver something more than good taste. They will give you cigarette comfort—comfort while you are smoking them and comfort AFTER you smoke them.

While you are smoking them, they will feel cool and comfortable to the throat and tongue.

And AFTER you smoke them—even though you may smoke more than usual—they will leave you feeling as you'd like to feel. No heavy or "heady" feeling—none of that "mean" feeling of having smoked too much.

You should try Fatimas.
